

K-LOVE radio is a great radio station that is safe and well liked by my whole family, it has great music, Christian programming with great values for the whole family. It has a positive effect on believers and non-believers that listen to their music. It would be a great loss to our community if they would disappear.